Battle Stars

DONG TAM – The Department of the Army has announced the seventh, eighth, and ninth Vietnam service campaigns to authorize the wearing of battle stars on the Vietnamese Service Ribbon by members of the U.S. Army who have served in the Republic of Vietnam.

The seventh campaign terminated June 30, 1968, while the eight runs from July 1 through November 1, 1968. The ninth and latest campaign commenced November 1 [1968] and is still in effect.

All men who have served in Vietnam during the designated campaigns may wear one bronze star per campaign on the service ribbon which is yellow and green with red stripes.
